The present call describes the criteria for applicant participation in the various modalities following the guidelines established by the European Commission for this programme.

- 30 grants for bachelor degree, master degree, or doctoral degree students from the partner universities of the Erasmus+ KA107-ES01-48367 project to undertake five-month mobility stays at the University of Valladolid
- 26 grants for academic or administration and service staff from partner universities of the Erasmus+ KA107-ES01-48367 project to undertake five-day mobility stays at the University of Valladolid

Point 11 of this call gives further details of the distribution of the financial support by destination countries.

1. GENERAL INFORMATION - ERASMUS+ PROGRAMME

Erasmus+ is the EU Programme in the fields of education, training, youth and sport for the period 2014-2020.

Projects under this Action promote transnational mobility activities targeting students and academic and administrative staff aiming to:

- Support students in the acquisition of learning outcomes (knowledge, skills and competences) with a view to improving their personal development, their involvement as considerate and active citizens in society and their employability in the European labour market and beyond
- Support the professional development of those who work in Higher Education
- Enhance notably the participants' foreign languages competence
- Raise participants' awareness and understanding of other cultures and countries, offering them the opportunity to build networks of international contacts, to actively participate in society and develop a sense of European citizenship and identity
- Increase the capacities, attractiveness and international dimension of universities
- Ensure a better recognition of competences gained through the learning periods abroad

Universidad de Valladolid

14. AMOUNT OF THE FINANCIAL SUPPORT

Beneficiaries will be given European financial support as a help towards the travel expenses and living expenses resulting from their stay in another country during the period in which they engage in training activities, based on the following parameters:

- Grant:
 - Academic or administrative staff mobility: 160 €/ day (5 days) + 2 days' travel (160€/day). TOTAL: 1,120 €
 - Student mobility: 850€ / month (5 months). TOTAL: 4,250 €
- Travel expenses: return ticket from the home institution to the University of Valladolid.

The Uva will pay travel, medical and accident insurance to beneficiaries during the mobility period and will exempt participants from payment of public academic fees. Insurance payment for students will be made through a reimbursement after arrival at the University of Valladolid.

Supplementary financial support is available for beneficiaries with physical disabilities or special needs. Applicants may contact the International Relations Office for information about this.

In accordance with current income tax legislation, these allowances for travel and everyday living expenses are exempt from payment of tax.

15. PROCEDURES BEFORE AND AFTER THE MOBILITY

Before commencing the mobility, the beneficiary must submit the following documents to the International Relations Office at the University of Valladolid:

- The Mobility Agreement
- The Erasmus+ financial support agreement for mobility

At the end of their stay, the beneficiary of the grant must:

- Fill in and send the online EU survey within 30 calendar days after having received the invitation to complete it. The institution may require participants who fail to fill in and send the online EU survey to reimburse in part or in full the amount of financial support received.

All of the documents referred to in this section are available in the private area of each beneficiary once their application has been satisfactorily dealt with. Each beneficiary will be notified by email so that they can accept their grant, and information will be provided concerning access to the private area of the web <https://www5.uva.es/uvamobplus/>

16. PROCEDURE FOR PAYMENT OF THE FINANCIAL SUPPORT.

Academic and administrative staff mobility:

The financial support will be paid in one single payment by cheque, subject to the regulations set out in Law 5/2008, of 25 September, governing grants in the region of Castilla y León, in the regulations governing the execution of the university budget, in the following terms:

- a. 100% of the financial support on the first day of the stay at the University of Valladolid

Student mobility:

The grant will be paid in three payments by cheque and transfer to the corresponding current account, in accordance with the regulations set out in Law 5/2008, of 25 September governing grants in the autonomous region of Castilla y León, in the regulations governing the execution of the university budget, in the following terms:

- 50% by cheque, at the start of the stay
- 30% by bank transfer to a Spanish bank account, before the end of the third month of the stay
- 20% by bank transfer to a Spanish bank account, before the end of the fourth month of the stay

In order to receive payment, the documents required by the Erasmus+ programme, and which those selected will be notified of together with the letter of concession, must be submitted.

Beneficiaries are required to inform the International Relations Office of any changes in the conditions taken into account that led to the awarding of the grant and which were included in the decision, such as those concerning the conferring of the grants set out in the following section.

17. INCOMPATIBILITIES:

This grant is incompatible with the receipt of other similar grants awarded by the university or by any other public or private body or entity.

These grants may not be used to cover items already funded through other financial support or to undertake teaching or research activities linked to other programmes for which other grants, financial support, remuneration or salary is received from the university.

Universidad de Valladolid

18. RENOUNCEMENT

Should a beneficiary renounce a grant awarded to them, they should do so in writing and through the register, in accordance with article 16.4 of Law 39/2015, governing common administrative procedure for public administration, in which case the vacant position may be allocated to a replacement, as set out in the stipulations for the decision governing this call.

The deadline for submission of renouncement is 31 July 2019. Should the renouncement not be submitted before said date and/or should the grant not have been used within the established deadline, the beneficiary may be penalised by being denied an ERASMUS + grant during the following academic year.

Should voluntary renouncement be submitted outside the deadline, said penalty shall not be applied in the event of one of the causes listed below:

1. Illness or serious accident suffered by the applicant.
2. Illness or death of an immediate family member.
3. Obligation to fulfil a public duty.
4. Any other cause that is sufficiently accredited and justified in the opinion of the International Relations Committee.

19. FAILURE TO COMPLY ON THE PART OF THE BENEFICIARY AND PENALTY SYSTEM:

Should the beneficiary fail to comply with the terms stipulated for the grant, the relevant legislation set out in Section IV of Law 5/2008, of 25 September, governing grants in the autonomous region of Castilla y León shall apply.

Given the nature of the grant, recipients shall be obliged to reimburse in full the amount received and shall be required to pay the corresponding late interest, as stipulated in article 37.1 of general Law 38/2003, of 17 November, governing grants.

The amounts to be reimbursed shall be considered public duty revenue rights, for repayment of which the stipulations set out in the regulations governing the law on public treasury and public sector duty revenue rights in the region of Castilla y León shall apply.

The system covering infringements and penalties in the matter of grants set out in Section V of Law 5/2008, of 25 September shall apply.

Universidad de Valladolid

20. LINKS AND DATA PROTECTION.

Personal data shall be processed in strict adherence to the stipulations set out under (EU) regulation 2016/679 of the European Parliament and Council, of 27 April 2016, on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data and repealing Directive 95/46/CE (General Data Protection Regulation) and Organic Law 3/2018, of 5 December, on the Protection of Personal Data and guaranteeing of digital rights.

Further information concerning the handling of personal data may be found in Annex 1

21. DECISION ON THE CALL.

1.- The deciding body shall be the International Relations Office.

2.- The body competent for taking decisions is the Vice-rector of Internationalisation, to whom power has been delegated by the Rector, in accordance with the Rector's resolution of 14 June 2018 amending the Rector's resolution of 23 May 2018 through which the Rector's powers are delegated to various single-person positions of this university (BOCYL no. 119 of 21 June), subsequent to a binding report issued by the International Relations Committee based on the reports of the evaluation committees.

3.- Against this decision, which concludes the administrative channel, a contentious-administrative appeal may be brought before the contentious-administrative court of Valladolid within two months, beginning the day after its publication on the previously mentioned electronic notice board of the university. Optionally, an appeal for reversal may be filed with the rectorate within the period of one month commencing on the same date (articles 8.2 and 13 of Law 29/1998, of 13 July, of contentious-administrative jurisdiction, with regard to article 123 of Law 39/2015, of 1 October, governing common administrative procedure for public administration). In said instances, the previously mentioned contentious-administrative appeal may not be filed until such time as a specific decision has been taken or until the implied rejection concerning the appeal for reversal.

4.- The decision on the call shall be taken within a period of no more than three months after the day on which the deadline for submission of applications concludes. Once said period has concluded without the decision having been published, applications may be deemed to have been rejected in the terms set out under Law 39/2015, governing common administrative procedure for public administration.

5.-The International Relations Office will publish the decision concerning the present call in the electronic office of the Uva and, for the purposes of information, on its webpage <http://www.relint.uva.es>

Universidad de Valladolid

22. FINAL PROVISION:

For any matters not regulated in these bases, Law 39/2015, governing common administrative procedure for public administration, Law 38/2003, of 17 November, governing general grants, Law 5/2008, of 25 September, governing grants in the region of Castilla y León, and the regulations governing execution of the university budget, as well as any other pertinent legislation shall be applied.

Consistent with the values of gender equality assumed by the university, any names which appear in this call in the masculine gender, when they have not been replaced by generic terms, shall be understood to refer also indistinctly to the feminine gender.

23. APPEALS:

Against this decision, which concludes the administrative channel, a contentious-administrative appeal may be brought before the contentious-administrative court of Valladolid within two months, beginning the day after its publication on the previously mentioned electronic notice board of the university. Optionally, an appeal for reversal may be filed with the rectorate within the period of one month commencing on the same date (articles 8.2 and 13 of Law 29/1998, of 13 July, of contentious-administrative jurisdiction, with regard to article 123 of Law 39/2015, of 1 October, governing common administrative procedure for public administration). In said instances, the previously mentioned contentious-administrative appeal may not be filed until such time as a specific decision has been taken or until the implied rejection concerning the appeal for reversal.
