Universidad de Valladolid

Cofinanciado por el programa Erasmus+ de la Unión Europea

14. SELECTION CRITERIA AND PROCESS:

- Student mobility (SMS):

The selection process comprises two stages:

- Formal validation of the formal requirements established by the home institution, through verification of all the documents submitted. Candidates who are admitted will take part in the evaluation process.
- Two-fold evaluation of each application, by the home institution and by the University of Valladolid, based on the following criteria:
 - Academic and research record (only doctorate): 60%
 - Motivation: 20%
 - Relevance of the proposal: 20%
- The final score obtained will be passed on to an evaluation committee composed of those responsible at all the partner institutions and who shall propose the final allocation of places.

Should the offer of an academic place entail a language requirement, this will be specified in the list of places offered. Language requirements will not be taken into account in the selection but are a sine qua non requirement.

In the event of a tie, preference will be given to disadvantaged students, those with disabilities or socioeconomically disadvantaged applicants.

17. PROCEDURE FOR PAYMENT OF THE FINANCIAL SUPPORT.

Student mobility:

The grant will be paid in four payments by cheque and transfer to the corresponding current account, in accordance with the regulations set out in Law 5/2008, of 25 September governing grants in the autonomous region of Castilla y León, in the regulations governing the execution of the university budget, in the following terms:

- 50% by cheque, at the start of the stay
- Travel support by bank transfer to a Spanish bank account, before the end of the second month of the stay
- 30% by bank transfer to a Spanish bank account, before the end of the third month of the stay
- 20% by bank transfer to a Spanish bank account, before the end of the fourth month of the stay

In order to receive payment, the documents required by the Erasmus+ programme, and which those selected will be notified of together with the letter of concession, must be submitted.

Beneficiaries are required to inform the International Relations Office of any changes in the conditions taken into account that led to the awarding of the grant and which were included in the decision, such as those concerning the conferring of the grants set out in the following section.

18. INCOMPATIBILITIES:

This grant is incompatible with the receipt of other similar grants awarded by the university or by any other public or private body or entity.

These grants may not be used to cover items already funded through other financial support or to undertake teaching or research activities linked to other programmes for which other grants, financial support, remuneration or salary is received from the university.

19. RENOUNCEMENT

Should a beneficiary renounce a grant awarded to them, they should do so in writing and through the register, in accordance with article 16.4 of Law 39/2015, governing common administrative procedure for public administration, in which case the vacant position may be allocated to a replacement, as set out in the stipulations for the decision governing this call.

Universidad de Valladolid

Cofinanciado por el programa Erasmus+ de la Unión Europea

The deadline for submission of renouncement is 30 January 2021. Should the renouncement not be submitted before said date and/or should the grant not have been used within the established deadline, the beneficiary may be penalised by being denied an ERASMUS + grant during the following academic year.

Should voluntary renouncement be submitted outside the deadline, said penalty shall not be applied in the event of one of the causes listed below:

1. Illness or serious accident suffered by the applicant.
2. Illness or death of an immediate family member.
3. Obligation to fulfil a public duty.
4. Any other cause that is sufficiently accredited and justified in the opinion of the International Relations Committee.

20. FAILURE TO COMPLY ON THE PART OF THE BENEFICIARY AND PENALTY SYSTEM:

Should the beneficiary fail to comply with the terms stipulated for the grant, the relevant legislation set out in Section IV of Law 5/2008, of 25 September, governing grants in the autonomous region of Castilla y León shall apply.

Given the nature of the grant, recipients shall be obliged to reimburse in full the amount received and shall be required to pay the corresponding late interest, as stipulated in article 37.1 of general Law 38/2003, of 17 November, governing grants.

The amounts to be reimbursed shall be considered public duty revenue rights, for repayment of which the stipulations set out in the regulations governing the law on public treasury and public sector duty revenue rights in the region of Castilla y León shall apply.

The system covering infringements and penalties in the matter of grants set out in Section V of Law 5/2008, of 25 September shall apply.

21. LINKS AND DATA PROTECTION.

Personal data shall be processed in strict adherence to the stipulations set out under (EU) regulation 2016/679 of the European Parliament and Council, of 27 April 2016, on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data and repealing Directive 95/46/CE (General Data Protection Regulation) and Organic Law 3/2018, of 5 December, on the Protection of Personal Data and guaranteeing of digital rights.

22. DECISION ON THE CALL.

1.- The deciding body shall be the International Relations Office.

2.- The body competent for taking decisions is the Vice-rector of Internationalisation, to whom power has been delegated by the Rector, in accordance with the Rector's resolution of 14 June 2018 amending the Rector's resolution of 23 May 2018 through which the Rector's powers are delegated to various single-person positions of this university (BOCYL no. 119 of 21 June), subsequent to a binding report issued by the International Relations Committee based on the reports of the evaluation committees.

3.- Against this decision, which concludes the administrative channel, a contentious-administrative appeal may be brought before the contentious-administrative court of Valladolid within two months, beginning the day after its publication on the previously mentioned electronic notice board of the university. Optionally, an appeal for reversal may be filed with the rectorate within the period of one month commencing on the same date (articles 8.2 and 13 of Law 29/1998, of 13 July, of contentious-administrative jurisdiction, with regard to article 123 of Law 39/2015, of 1 October, governing common administrative procedure for public administration). In said instances, the previously mentioned contentious-administrative appeal may not be filed until such time as a specific decision has been taken or until the implied rejection concerning the appeal for reversal.

4.- The decision on the call shall be taken within a period of no more than three months after the day on which the deadline for submission of applications concludes. Once said period has concluded without the decision having been published, applications may be deemed to have been rejected in the terms set out under Law 39/2015, governing common administrative procedure for public administration.

5.- The International Relations Office will publish the decision concerning the present call in the electronic office of the Uva and, for the purposes of information, on its webpage <http://www.relint.uva.es> and on <https://uvamobplus.uva.es/>

23. FINAL PROVISION:

For any matters not regulated in these bases, Law 39/2015, governing common administrative procedure for public administration, Law 38/2003, of 17 November, governing general grants, Law 5/2008, of 25 September, governing grants in the region of Castilla y León, and the regulations governing execution of the university budget, as well as any other pertinent legislation shall be applied.

Consistent with the values of gender equality assumed by the university, any names which appear in this call in the masculine gender, when they have not been replaced by generic terms, shall be understood to refer also indistinctly to the feminine gender.

5. Recipients of the data

Data will be sent without consent to:

- the applicant's home institution.
- EU institutions and bodies, in accordance with the regulations inherent to this call.
- judges and courts, in the terms set out by the applicable legislation for handling related appeals. In such instances, before making data available to third parties, the university ensures that said authorities request such data and access them in accordance with the law.
- in addition, the names of those awarded grants will be published on the official notice board of the electronic office of the University of Valladolid and on the International Relations Office webpage.

Optionally, data will be sent with consent to:

- Mentor programmes and the International Relations Office service for help with finding accommodation.

6. Period for which data are held

The personal data provided will be held, depending on the nature thereof, in accordance with the following criteria:

- Information relating to persons taking part will be kept for the period required for any administrative or legal appeals filed, pursuant to the regulations set out under Law 39/2015, of 1 October, governing common administrative procedure for public administration and Law 38/2003, of 17 November, governing general grants.
- Information relating to beneficiaries of grants will be kept for the duration of their association with the University of Valladolid.
- Nevertheless, in general, the information may be stored, duly blocked, for the additional three-year period foreseen until such time as the legal responsibilities in the matter of data protection have prescribed.
- The University of Valladolid is a public institution subject to the obligations of Law 16/1985, of 25 June, governing Spanish historical heritage, and Castilla y León Law 6/1991, of 19 April, governing archives and document heritage and may, therefore, keep the information for an indefinite period for archive purposes in the public interest.
